Athalia is a homebred girl, and her full sibling is a gorgeous silver grey boy, who has gone on to be a stud male. She is a beautiful roan colour, with white socks on her front feet. She is a delight to handle, and has always been a tall girl. We decided to mate Athalia to Nelson, as Nelson has produced multiple multi-coloured cria. Crowdie has given us several beautiful cria, and her daughter (which will be the full sibling to her next cria) will be staying indefinitely. Crowdie is good to handle, although she does 'grumble' when injected or drenched (in a comical way!). This mating to Nelson is tried and tested, and always results in a fine and uniform cria, usually fawn. Crowdie is the perfect female to get a serious improvement in one birthing season!

Nutella is a very special girl, with a wonderful nature, and the most beautiful look. She is for sale as one of our main stud boys shares a sire with her, so her options are limited here in the future. Nutella's cria are always some of the most beautiful of the year, with her first cria being a rose grey boy, and her second being a big strong brown girl. Nutella is a dream to handle and deal with and her kind nature always passes down to her cria.
